Feminism, Philosophy & New Horizons

International Workshop 2026

About the Workshop:

At a time of profound social, political, technological, and epistemic transformations, feminist philosophy offers critical resources for questioning established frameworks of knowledge, power, and justice. Feminism, Philosophy and New Horizons provides a space for international philosophical dialogue, bringing diverse feminist perspectives into conversation to rethink contemporary challenges and explore new possibilities for philosophical theory and practice.

In-Person participants:

Ruth Hagengruber
Paderborn University, Germany

Astrid Wagner
CSIC

Concha Roldán
CSIC

Martha Palacio
UAH

Mª José Guerra
ULL

Inmaculada Perdomo
ULL

Cristina Sánchez
UAM

ULL Researchers

Online participants:

Priyanka Jha
Banaras Hindu University, India

Tess T. Payongayong
University of the Phillippines Diliman, Phillippines

Ivana Skuhala Karasman
Institute of Philosophy, Croatia

Kateryna Karpenko
Kharkiv University, Ukraine

Mónica Cano
Graz University, Austria

Salón de Grados de Filosofía
30.11

12:00
INAUGURATION

12:30
OPENING LECTURE

Ruth Hagengruber

Paderborn University, Germany. President of the German Philosophical Association and the IAPh.

The Gendered Constitution of Economic Reason: A Feminist Critique of Law, Society, and Economics

13:30-15:00
LUNCH

15:00-16:00
ULL RESEARCHERS PANEL

Chaxiraxi Escuela

Universidad de La Laguna

Releer a Else Frenkel-Brunswick. Nuevos horizontes para la crítica del autoritarismo / Rereading Else Frenkel-Brunswick. New Horizons for the Critique of Authoritarianism

Laura García

Universidad de La Laguna

Series de televisión y perspectiva de género: de la violencia simbólica a las nuevas heroínas / Television series and gender perspective: from symbolic violence to the new heroines

16:00-17:00

Kateryna Karpenko

Kharkiv University, Ukraine

Women Philosophers and Scientists Against War and Ecocide: The Ukrainian Context

17:00-18:00

Cristina Sánchez

Universidad Autónoma de Madrid. UAM

A Feminist Grammar of Dissent: Back to the classics

Seminar 3
Sección de Filosofía
01.12

9:30-10:30
IAPH BOARD MEETING

10:30-11:30

Tess T. Payongayong

University of the Phillippines Diliman, Phillippines

Whose Philosophy Counts? Revisiting a Filipino Woman Philosopher´s contribution from a feminist perspective

11:30-12:30

Priyanka Jha

Banaras Hindu University, India.

Feminist Pasts, Unsettled Presents: Modern Indian Feminist Thought as an Epistemic Framework for Reading Contemporary Crisis and Protests

13:00-14:30
LUNCH

Salón de Grados
de la Sección de Filosofía

15:00-16:00
ULL RESEARCHERS PANEL

Natividad Garrido

Universidad de La Laguna

Santé des femmes: perspectives des humanités médicales

Claudia González

Universidad de La Laguna

Repenser la nécropolitique à partir du genre: le cas de la route Sénégal-Canaries

16:00-17:00

Astrid Wagner

Instituto de Filosofía del Consejo Superior de Investigaciones científicas (CSIC)

Epistemic care in the Age of Algorithms: A Feminist Approach to Cognitive Vulnerability

17:00-18:00

Inmaculada Perdomo

Universidad de La Laguna

Feminist Philosophy of Science and Technology. New Horizons.

18:00-19:00

Mónica Cano

University of Graz (CIRAC)

A Feminist Philosophical Perspective on the Ethics of Medical AI

Seminar 3
Sección de Filosofía
02.12

9:30-10:30

Ivana Skuhala / Luka Boršić

Institute of Philosophy, Croatia

The first Croatian Feminists

10:30-11:30

María José Guerra

Universidad de La Laguna

Coping with End-Times Fascism: Ecofeminist Alternatives, Care and Hope

11:30-12:30

Martha Palacio

Universidad de Alcalá de Henares

Feminism and Coloniality: negotiating social belonging in the classroom

12:30-13:30
CLOSING LECTURE

Concha Roldán

Instituto de Filosofía del Consejo Superior de Investigaciones científicas (CSIC)

Hacia una historia inclusiva de la filosofía / Towards an Inclusive History of Philosophy

13:30
CLOSING CEREMONY

IAPh
International Associaton of Women Philosophers

Cátedra UNESCO en Políticas de Género e Igualdad de Derechos entre Mujeres y Hombres
Universidad Autónoma de Madrid

Universidad de La Laguna